

FIG. 1

FIG. 3

FIG. 4

FIG. 5

FIG. 6

The graph shows the relationship between Force and Displacement. The vertical axis is labeled 'FORCE' and the horizontal axis is labeled 'DISPLACEMENT'. The curve starts at a positive force value, rises to a peak, then falls to a minimum, and finally rises sharply. Three points are marked on the horizontal axis: A is at the start of the curve, B is at the peak, and C is at the minimum.

[illegible]

FIG. 8